

Leggieri and Lane Wedding

Michelle Dominique Leggieri and David Adam Lane were married May 30, 2009 at St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church in Frederick, Maryland. Father Leo Holleran officiated the mass. A reception followed at Holly Hills Country Club in Ijamsville, Maryland.

The bride is the daughter of Michael and Linda Leggieri of Frederick and the groom is the son of David and Amy Lane of Berkeley Springs, West Virginia. The bride's sister, Andrea Leggieri, served as the maid of honor. The bridesmaids included the bride's sister-in-law, Jessica Lane, and the bride's friends, Melissa Fisher, Barbara Loll, and Katie Zidek.

The groom's friend, Cole Haspert, served as the best man. The groomsmen included the groom's brother-in-law, Mike Leggieri, and the groom's friends, Nate Heiner, Sterling Lawrence, and Joel Leaf.

The bride is a 2006 graduate of Thomas Johnson High School and a 2009 graduate of Hood College, where she received a Bachelor of Arts degree in social work. She is currently pursuing a Master of Social Work degree from the University of Maryland, Baltimore.

The groom is a 2004 graduate of Glenelg High School and a graduate of the Community College of Baltimore County, where he completed the Toyota T-TEN program and earned a degree in Automotive Technology. He is currently an automotive technician for Honda.

Following a honeymoon in Jamaica, the couple resides in New Market, Maryland.